

WPGC SCHOOL HOLIDAY WORKSHOPS

The Western Plains Cultural Centre is pleased to offer FREE art workshops for the whole family in the July 2018 school holidays.

- ◆ All children must be accompanied by a responsible adult
- ◆ The workshops start promptly at 10.00am and last for one hour
- ◆ No Bookings required, please arrive promptly

10am – 11am | Monday 16 July

Come and meet Cosmo McMurty, a 3.3 metre tall rabbit who is part of the exhibition Bowerbird. What do you think Cosmo does when everybody has gone home for the day? It must be a bit lonely. Could you build the perfect friend for Cosmo? Come and give it a go.

Suitable for 5-12 years old

10am – 11am | Tuesday 17 July

Listen to the amazing music performed by the Australian Chamber Orchestra in ACO Virtual. It will blow your mind! Create a funky plasticine collage expressing how you felt about the music you heard.

Suitable for 5 – 12 years old

10am – 11am | Thursday 19 July

It's cold, a great time to snuggle up under a quilt. In celebration of the quilt exhibition Hand Made Tales (8 September – 9 December), we are inviting children to design a special quilt using paper and material.

Suitable for 2-6 years old

10am – 11am | Friday 20 July

Make and decorate a percussive instrument and play along with the phenomenal Australian Chamber Orchestra in ACO Virtual.

Suitable for 2-6 years old
