Enjoy our fresh breakfast and coffee options with family and friends before you start exploring the regional produce, sampling and taking home all the goodies you will need to prepare your own gourmet dishes at home.

Cob Loaf Festival

Cameron Park | Nanima Crescent, Wellington
4pm – 10pm | Free admission
What's the Cob Loaf Festival you ask? It's a play on words for Cameron Park on the Bell River and a Wellington festival in its second year. And to continue with the frivolities they are also looking for Wellington's best Cob Loaf recipe!

Ultimo String Quartet

Macquarie Conservatorium of Music
Corner Bultje & Darling streets, Dubbo
7.30pm – 9.30pm | Adult $29 | Concession $25
Family of 4 $58 | School Student $7
Violinists Kristian Winther and Anna da Silva Chen, violist James Wannan and cellist Thomas Rann bring their combined virtuosity, musical intelligence and extensive chamber music experience together in an exciting new extension.

Arj Barker

Dubbo RSL Club | 178 Brisbane Street, Dubbo
8pm – 11pm | Tickets $44
Everyone's coming up to me half in tears, 'Arj what about Global Warming?' and everybody's convinced that the earth has a problem – because it's so hot. But I don't hear a single intelligent individual aside from myself suggest that the Earth is just fine – but there's something wrong with the sun!
