COMMERCIAL PROPERTY

Uncover affordable commercial property options, where you can have 120,000 eager shoppers at your doorstep and access to your customers world wide.

A thriving regional city, Dubbo services a huge geographical area – one third of NSW. The City is home to more than 3500 business and provides a catchment area population of 120,000 with retail, health, education and professional services. Retail trade is the City's largest employer – accounting for 13.7% of the total working population.

Dubbo's central location and associated transport network provides immense opportunities for service industries, manufacturers, importers and exporters. Overheads, labour supply and direct access to interstate transport routes also provides competitive advantages for businesses with local, interstate and international links.

Property options

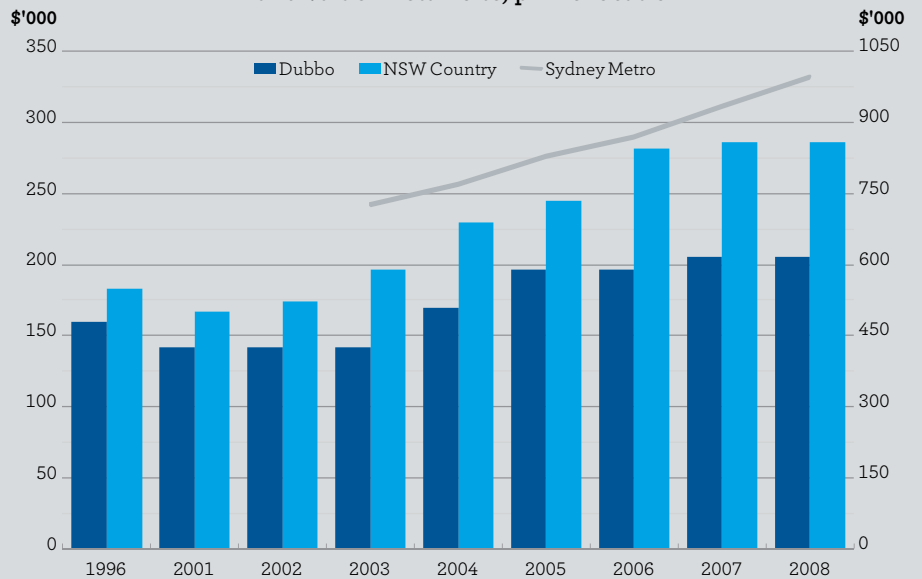

The City has a range of commercial property for lease or sale including industrial, office and retail. Dubbo is home to two major retail centres, with a third under development.

Property development has supported demand for real estate. The value of commercial building approvals was approximately $35.4 million in the year to March Quarter 2009, an annual increase of almost 30%. Demand for Dubbo's accessible location has seen the development of four major industrial estates.
