 SCHOOL HOLIDAY PROGRAM

AUTUMN  For the Wild

Come along & join our team on “Eggcellent” Zoo Adventures these holidays!

This unique school holiday program provides children with engaging experiences whilst being surrounded by the sights and sounds of the zoo and the animals that live here. Your children will be amazed and excited as they join in animal themed activities and meet our friendly keepers who care for the animals that live at Taronga Western Plains Zoo.

WEEK 1

Tuesday 17th April

THEME

Animal Athletes

Living in the wilderness can be tough! Join us at the zoo to learn More about our Amazing Animal Athletes.

Wednesday 18th April

Freshwater Findings

Dive into a magical underwater world to find our freshwater friends.

Thursday 19th April

Slimy and Scaly

Get up close and meet our slimier and scaly zoo inhabitants and discover why their numbers are decreasing in the wild!

Friday 20th April

Claws and Paws

Take a whirlwind adventure with us, find clues to track some animals & discover how we can make a positive difference to their homes.

WEEK 2

Tuesday 24th April

THEME

Feathered Friends

Learn all about the wonderful world of our feathered friends & how we can help them!

Wednesday 25th April

PUBLIC HOLIDAY - NO ZOO ADVENTURES

Thursday 26th April

Wiradjuri Ways

Connect to Culture and Place as we learn more about the first knowledge holders, scientists and care-takers of wildlife.

Friday 27th April

Secret Worlds

Let's explore the secrets of nocturnal animals & discover what happens in the natural world under the cover of darkness!
